Resolution adopted by the General Assembly

67/... Modalities, format and organization of the High-level Meeting of the General Assembly on the Appraisal of the Global Plan of Action to Combat Trafficking in Persons

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 67/190 of 20 December 2012, in which it refers to its decision to conduct, in 2013, an appraisal of the progress achieved in the implementation of the United Nations Global Plan of Action to Combat Trafficking in Person and decided to convene, within existing resources, a high-level meeting of the General Assembly at its sixty-seventh session, no later than July 2013, in order to assess achievements, gaps and challenges, including in the implementation of the relevant legal instruments;

Recalling its resolution 64/293 of 30 July 2010 by which it adopted the Global Plan of Action to Combat Trafficking in Persons;

Recalling its resolution 55/25 of 15 November 2000, with which it adopted the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime and the Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, supplementing the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime;

Recalling its decision in paragraph 13 of resolution 67/190 of 20 December 2012 to determine the modalities of the high level meeting including on the participation of international, regional and subregional organizations, as well as civil society, including non-governmental organizations, the private sector and the media, whose role is emphasized in the Global Plan of Action;

1. Decides that the high-level meeting of the General Assembly on the Appraisal of the Global Plan of Action to Combat Trafficking in Persons will be held on Monday, 13 May and Tuesday, 14 May 2013, and will consist of an opening plenary meeting on May 13 from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m., plenary meetings on 13 May from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and on 14 May from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. and a closing plenary meeting after the list of speakers has been exhausted, as well as two consecutive interactive panel discussions on 13 May in the afternoon;

2. Decides that the opening plenary meeting will feature statements by the President of the General Assembly, the Secretary-General, the Executive Director of UNODC as well as an eminent person actively engaged in the fight against trafficking in persons and a representative from a non-governmental organization in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council who may be a survivor, both of whom to be identified by the President of the General Assembly;

3. Further decides that the organizational arrangements for the interactive panel discussions to take place on Monday 13 May 2013 in the afternoon and to be chaired by Member States at the invitation of the President of the General Assembly, after consultations with regional groups, will be as follows:

a. The interactive panel discussion 1, which will take place from 3 p.m. to 4.30 p.m., will address the theme: The Global Plan of Action, relevant legal instruments, and Effective Partnerships to Protect and Assist Victims of Human Trafficking;

b. The interactive panel discussion 2, which will take place from 4.30 p.m. to 6 p.m., will address the theme: Sharing Best Practices and Lessons Learned for Prevention and Prosecution in the implementation of the Global Plan of Action, and relevant legal instruments;

c. The Chairs of the interactive panel discussions will present summaries of the discussions at the closing plenary meeting, followed by final remarks by the President of the General Assembly;

d. In order to promote interactive and substantive discussions, participation in each panel discussion will include Member States, observers, representatives of UN organizations and entities as well as representatives of international, regional and sub-regional organizations, as well as civil society, including non-governmental organizations, the private sector and the media;

4. Recalls its request in paragraph 14 of resolution 67/190 of 20 December 2012 that the President of the General Assembly prepare a summary of the high-level meeting, identifying achievements, gaps and challenges in the implementation of the Global Plan of Action and relevant legal instruments and decides to bring the summary to the attention of relevant UN entities and other stakeholders;

5. Invites Member States, the Holy See and Palestine, in their capacity as observer States, and the European Union, in its capacity as observer, to be represented at the highest possible level at the high-level meeting;

6. Encourages Member States to consider including in their delegations to the high-level meeting representatives of civil society active in combating trafficking in persons and the private sector;

7. Invites all relevant United Nations entities, other relevant intergovernmental, regional and sub-regional organizations to participate in the high-level meeting;

8. Requests the President of the General Assembly to draw up a list of interested representatives of non-governmental organizations in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council who may participate in the high-level meeting;

9. Requests the President of the General Assembly to draw up a list of representatives of other relevant non-governmental organizations, civil society organizations, the private sector and the media active in combating trafficking in persons, taking into account the principle of transparency and the principle of equitable geographical representation, and to submit the proposed list to Member States for their consideration on a non-objection basis and to bring the list to the attention of the General Assembly;

10. Requests the President of the General Assembly, in consultation with Member States, to finalize the organizational arrangements of the meetings, taking into account the length of the meetings, the identification of the eminent person and the representative from a non-governmental organization in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council to speak at the opening plenary meeting and the identification of Chairs for the interactive panel discussions, bearing in mind the level of representation as well as equitable geographical representation.

11. Encourages Member States, UN entities, intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, private sector entities, and other relevant stakeholders to consider supporting the participation of representatives from developing countries, including representatives of non-governmental organizations from those countries, in order to ensure the broadest possible participation, and requests the Secretary-General to take all necessary measures in this regard;

12. Decides that the proceedings of the high-level meeting shall be webcast;

13. Encourages Member States and other stakeholders to continue to contribute to the United Nations Voluntary Trust Fund for Victims of Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children, which was established by the Global Plan of Action.
